NOTICE TO APPLICANTS

- A) Every person has the right to adopt any surname by which that person wishes to be known by using that surname consistently and without intent to defraud.
- B) A person's surname does not automatically change upon marriage. Neither party to the marriage must change to the party's surname. Parties to a marriage need not have the same surname.
- C) One party or both parties to a marriage may elect to change the surname by which that party wishes to be known after solemnization of the marriage by entering the new surname in the space below. The entry must consist of one of the following surnames:
1. The surname of the other spouse;
 2. Any former surname of either spouse;
 3. A name combining into a single surname all or a segment of the premarriage surname or any former surname of either spouse; or
 4. A combination name separated by a hyphen, provided that each part of the combination surname is the premarriage surname or a former surname of either spouse.
- D) Use of the option under subdivision C has the effect of providing a record of the surname change. The marriage certificate containing the new surname, if any, constitutes proof that the use of the new surname, or the retention of the former surname is lawful.
- E) Neither the use of nor the failure to use the option of selecting a new surname by means of this application, as provided in subdivision C, abrogates the right of either party to adopt a different surname through usage at a future date.
